- Criminal cases filed in the Circuit Court Proper are felonies and misdemeanors. The latter type of case generally is transferred from the District Court when a jury trial is demanded by the defendant. Excluded are juvenile and adult cases which are under the jurisdiction of the Family Court. The data reflects only those criminal cases which were reported as disposed during the fiscal year and excludes those which are still pending disposition such as cases which are awaiting trial, cases which are awaiting sentencing, and cases on Deferred Acceptance of Guilty Plea status.
A case represents a defendant in a criminal case. Thus, if a criminal case which was initiated by an indictment names three defendants, for case counting purposes, this is reported as three criminal cases. When multiple offenses are involved, the most serious offense is selected and utilized for classification purposes.
- Offense Charged represents the original offense named on the complaint or indictment. An offense may be amended by the prosecutor during progress of cases. Upon disposition of the case, the final offense may be the same as the offense charged, a lesser included offense, or one of the other offenses named on a complaint or indictment. The categories presented are those utilized by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (F.B.I.) in their annual series: Uniform Crime Reports.
For illustrative purposes, some examples of sentences meted by the courts are listed below.
A defendant convicted of two counts of burglary in the first degree was sentenced to (1) commitment in a correctional facility for a period of ten years and (2) a suspended sentence. The statistical reporting clerk selects "incarceration" as the sentence.
A defendant was acquitted of a charge of murder, but convicted of failure to register firearm and sentenced to probation for a period of five years. The clerk selects the probation sentence.
Sentences given to convicted defendants are authorized by statute. (HRS 706-605)
- Criminal cases are dismissed for various reasons: the witness for the prosecution left the jurisdiction and thus was unavailable to testify, or the defendant was not given a speedy trial, or the defendant had successfully fulfilled the terms and conditions of the Deferred Acceptance of Guilty Plea, etc.
- Defendants are acquitted by the jury or the judge after trial.
- The judge may sentence a convicted defendant by suspending imposition of sentence. This sentence may or may not include payment of a fine or restitution.
- A sentence of fine may also include restitution, but excludes cases where the defendant is also sentenced to incarceration or probation.
- A sentence of incarceration in the case of a defendant convicted of a felony offense is to confinement in a community correctional facility (prison) for a period of five years or longer. This sentence may include payment of a fine or restitution. If a defendant is convicted of a misdemeanor offense, he/she is sentenced to confinement in a community correctional facility for a period up to one year.
- Probation as a sentence may include payment of a fine, or restitution, or community service. In addition, a person sentenced to probation may also be ordered to serve up to one year in a correctional facility as a condition of probation for a felony offense and up to six months for a misdemeanor offense.
- Community Service is an alternative provided by statute. The court shall not sentence a person only to perform community service unless "it is of the opinion that such services alone suffice for the protection of the public."
- Other disposition includes a sentence other than sentence suspended, fine, incarceration, probation or community service.
- Transferred is not a final disposition. This disposition occurs if a defendant requests and is granted a change of venue. Proceedings are then transferred to another judicial circuit.
- Remanded cases are those where the defendants initially requested jury trial. The cases were referred back to the District Court for action and disposition.
