This has been compiled by the Judiciary Human Resources Department. Accurate as of date of compilation but may be revised. Sources: Hawai'i Revised Statutes as amended; State Constitution as amended; and the Reference Desk of the Hawai'i State Library. As of September 2001, these are the legal holidays defined in the Hawai'i Revised Statutes to be observed by the State. For State agencies that operate on other than Monday-Friday schedules, also refer to appropriate collective bargaining agreements. Federal government and local banking holidays differ. Public school "breaks" are not included. Holidays that fall on Saturdays are observed on the preceding Friday; holidays that fall on Sundays, except for Easter, are observed on the following Monday. Election days are established by the State Constitution. This calendar is posted on the Judiciary Intranet site as a ready reference for Judiciary employees.
