

Circuit Court Programs

Adult Probation Division - The Adult Probation Division prepares pre-sentence and other investigative reports ordered by the Criminal Division and supervises defendants placed on probation, deferred status, or conditional release.

Family Court Programs

- Juvenile Client Services, Juvenile Specialized Services Section - Provides intake, screening, and counseling services to juveniles and their families.
- Juvenile Client Services, Juvenile Intake and Probation Section - Monitors and supervises juveniles who have been referred to and/or adjudicated by the court for law violations and status offenses and who are required to complete specified condition of an informal adjustment of the referral and who are placed on status or continued under court's jurisdiction for further disposition.
- Juvenile Drug Court – Is a post-adjudication treatment based drug court program for substance abusing juveniles and their families with gender-specific, culturally competent, family-based, and juvenile justice appropriate interventions.
- Family Drug Court – Is a comprehensive approach to helping parents break the cycle of addiction and child abuse & neglect through monitored service delivery. Includes substance abuse treatment and parent education.
- Hawai'i Girls Court – Provides a positive, pro-active, gender-specific and strength-based program for female juveniles with active family participation. Includes family and individual counseling, community service, educational and recreational activities, and group court sessions.
- Zero to Three Court – Provides monthly court hearings and case conferences for selected cases involving children from birth to three. Focuses on ensuring increased parent-child contacts, frequent monitoring of the child's well-being, and linking families to the early intervention and early learning communities with the goal of achieving permanence for children in a safe and stable home on a timely basis.
- Detention Services - Additional services to juveniles are provided through the Detention Services Branch. The Detention Services Branch administers these facilities in the First Circuit:
 - Hale Ho`omaluu Juvenile Detention Facility - The Hale Ho`omaluu Juvenile Detention Facility is a 24-hour secure facility. At the facility, a team of juvenile detention staff, cooks, probation officers, and a nurse provide educational, recreational, health, guidance, and diagnostic services to juveniles who require temporary secure custody.

- Home Maluhia - Home Maluhia, a non-secured facility, provides therapeutic counseling and rehabilitative services for status offenders and minor law violators who do not require detention.
- Adult Services - The Adult Services Branch provides services necessary to reduce or ameliorate family problems experienced by adults. This branch has three specialized units: Temporary Restraining Orders/Domestic Violence, and two Criminal Misdemeanor units.

District Court Programs

Probation officers in the District Court Probation Branch are deputized to aid the courts by preparing the judges' pre-sentence investigation reports and restitution studies, and coordinating mental examinations of defendants. Probation officers also supervise probationers and offenders on court-ordered control and provide counseling and coordination of rehabilitative services. Note: Kaua'i does not have a separate District Court Probation Branch.

Other Programs

- Hawai'i Children's Justice Centers - The program brings together a multidisciplinary team of professionals. These professionals coordinate their activities and investigations of child abuse and neglect.
- Office of the Public Guardian – The program is responsible for guardianship of incapacitated persons when no other suitable or willing person is available.
